What will you achieve?

The University of Sydney is one of Australia's largest and most prestigious universities. Established in 1850, it is Australia's first university, and a member of the 'Group of Eight', Australia's premier research intensive universities, and ranked in the top 100 universities in the world and among the top three in Australia. We are:

Ranked 46th in the world by the QS World University Rankings 2016-17. We are also ranked 1st in Australia and 4th in the world for graduate employability by the QS Graduate Employability Rankings 2017.

Among the top 20 in the world in a range of subjects including:

- Accounting & Finance #20 (#3 AUS)
- Anatomy and physiology #10 (#1 AUS)
- Architecture/built environment #15 (#1 AUS)
- Education #11 (#2 AUS)
- English language and literature #18 (#1 AUS)
- Geography #17 (#2 AUS)
- Law #13 (#2 AUS)
- Medicine #15 (#1 AUS)
- Nursing #9 (#2 AUS)
- Pharmacy and pharmacology #20 (#2 AUS)
- Sports-related subjects #1 in the world
- Veterinary sciences #11 (#1 AUS)

Heritage-listed, sandstone buildings stand side by side with ultramodern sophisticated ones on our main campus, which is surrounded by green park lands. We are also conveniently situated within close proximity to the city's Central Business District (CBD) and also to Sydney's world-renowned, stunning ocean beaches.

Our faculty is a mix of local and internationally recruited academics with extensive teaching, business and industry expertise. They bring years of knowledge gained from research in their respective fields into the classroom.

We have an exceptional staff/student ratio with smaller, more personal classes, allowing our lecturers to cater to the students' individual needs. The extracurricular sporting and recreational amenities, clubs and societies available to our students are second to none.
